What Are Short Responses?

Short responses are brief but focused answers that typically require students to analyze a text, interpret a quote, or explain a concept in a concise manner. They are designed to assess comprehension, analytical skills, and the ability to support answers with evidence from the text.

Key Features of Effective Short Responses

- Conciseness: Clear and direct answers without unnecessary information.
- Evidence-Based: Support your response with specific examples or quotations from the text.
- Analysis: Explain the significance of the evidence in relation to the question.
- Clarity: Use proper grammar, punctuation, and sentence structure.

Common Types of Short Response Questions in the 2013 English Regents

The 2013 exam featured various types of short response prompts, typically including:

- Quote Analysis: Explaining the significance of a given quote.
- Theme Identification: Discussing themes or messages in a passage.
- Character Analysis: Describing character traits or developments.
- Author's Purpose: Interpreting an author's intent or tone.

Understanding these types can help students prepare targeted responses.

Sample 2013 Short Response Prompts and Model Answers

- Quote Analysis Example

Prompt:

Read the following quote from the passage: "The night was silent, yet filled with unspoken fears." Explain what this quote reveals about the mood of the story.

Model Response:

This quote reveals that the mood of the story is tense and apprehensive. The word "silent" suggests a calm exterior, but "unspoken fears" indicates that characters are feeling anxious or worried beneath the surface. The contrast emphasizes an atmosphere of suspense and emotional turmoil, which sets the tone for the events that follow.

- Theme Identification Example

Prompt:

Identify a central theme in the passage and explain how the author develops this theme.

Model Response:

A central theme in the passage is the struggle between hope and despair. The author develops this theme by showing the protagonist's moments of optimism contrasted with scenes of doubt and fear. For example, when the character dreams of a better future, it highlights hope, but later, their feelings of failure show despair. This contrast emphasizes the ongoing internal conflict faced by the character.

- Character Analysis Example

Prompt:

Describe how the main character changes throughout the story.

Model Response:

At the beginning of the story, the main character is naive and trusting. However, as the story progresses, they become more cautious and aware of the world's complexities. What Are FND Documents?

In Oracle E-Business Suite, FND (Foundation) documents are standardized pieces of data used across various modules to support configuration, messaging, and processing. These documents often contain essential information such as error messages, labels, descriptions, and short texts that facilitate user interaction and system operations.

The Role of Short Texts in FND Documents

The short text within FND documents serves as a concise, easily understandable snippet of information that summarizes or labels a particular message or data element. This short text is typically used in user interfaces, notifications, and logs to quickly convey the essence of the message without overwhelming users with lengthy descriptions.

Key purposes of FND document short texts include:

- Providing quick, readable labels for form fields or options.
- Summarizing error or informational messages.
- Facilitating localization by enabling easy translation of concise texts.
- Enhancing user experience by reducing clutter and improving clarity.

Structure and Components of FND Documents Short Texts

Basic Structure of FND Documents

FND documents are stored within Oracle EBS's database tables, primarily in the `FND_DOCUMENTS` and `FND_DOCUMENTS_TL` tables. These tables contain core information and translations, respectively.

Key tables involved:

- `FND_DOCUMENTS`: Stores document identifiers, types, and core attributes.
- `FND_DOCUMENTS_TL`: Stores translated or localized text for different languages.

Components of Short Texts

A typical FND document short text consists of:
