The primary aim is to provide gamers and collectors with authentic representations of Belgian forces, enabling them to recreate historical battles or develop unique campaigns centered around Belgium's military history.

This range is particularly appealing because it fills a niche often overlooked in the broader wargaming community. While many companies produce generic European armies, Warlord Games has dedicated significant effort to capturing the distinct characteristics of Belgian troops' uniforms, weaponry, and insignia, adding depth and authenticity to any tabletop battlefield.

Design and Sculpting Quality

Detail and Accuracy

One of the hallmarks of Warlord Games' miniatures is their high-quality sculpting. TM Armies of Belgium does not disappoint in this regard. Each figure is carefully sculpted with exaggerated yet realistic proportions, capturing the nuances of Belgian uniforms, equipment, and weaponry. The armor and gear reflect the specific time period, whether it's the distinctive Belgian army uniforms of World War I or the more modern attire seen during World War II.

The sculptors have paid close attention to small details such as insignia, badges, and headgear, which significantly contribute to the authenticity of the figures. For instance, Belgian soldiers' distinctive helmets, such as the Adrian helmet used during WWI, are accurately represented, along with appropriate uniforms and equipment.

Poses and Variety

The figures are designed with a diverse range of poses, from standing and kneeling to prone positions, allowing for dynamic and realistic battlefield scenes. This variety helps prevent the miniatures from feeling static or repetitive, encouraging creative dioramas and engaging gameplay.

The range includes command figures, which are crucial for tabletop strategy, as well as support units like machine gunners, snipers, and artillery crew. This comprehensive approach ensures players can assemble complete force compositions that reflect real Belgian military units.

Scale and Compatibility

Warlord Games' TM Armies of Belgium miniatures are produced in 28mm scale, which is a standard in the tabletop wargaming community. This makes them compatible with other popular ranges from Warlord Games, such as Bolt Action, as well as many third-party manufacturers.
